As of the date of this filing, the underwriters of the IPO have not exercised any portion of such option.

Unit Subscription Agreement between the Issuer and Sponsor

On June 7, 2017, simultaneously with the consummation of the IPO, the Sponsor purchased 350,000 Placement Units pursuant to the Subscription Agreement. Insider Letter

On June 1, 2017, in connection with the IPO, the Issuer, the Reporting Persons, and the other officers and directors of the Issuer entered into a letter agreement (the “Insider Letter”). Pursuant to the Insider Letter, the Reporting Persons agreed (A) to vote the Founder Shares, any shares of Common Stock underlying the Placement Units and any public shares in favor of any proposed business combination, (B) not to propose an amendment to the Issuer’s Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation that would affect the substance or timing of the Issuer’s obligation to redeem the public shares if the Issuer does not consummate a business combination within 18 months (or up to 21 months if the Issuer has executed a letter of intent, agreement in principle or definitive agreement for an initial business combination within 18 months from the closing of the IPO but has not completed the initial business combination within such 18-month period) from the closing of the IPO, unless the Issuer provides the holders of public shares with the opportunity to redeem such shares upon approval of any such amendment at a per-share price, payable in cash, equal to the aggregate amount then on deposit in the Trust Account, (C) not to redeem any Founder Shares and any shares underlying the Placement Units into the right to receive cash from the trust account in connection with a shareholder vote to approve the Issuer’s proposed initial business combination or a vote to amend the provisions of the Issuer’s Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation relating to shareholders’ rights or pre-business combination activity and (D) that the Founder Shares and any shares of Common Stock underlying the Placement Units shall not participate in any liquidating distribution upon winding up if a business combination is not consummated. The Sponsor also agreed that in the event of the liquidation of the Trust Account of the Issuer (as defined in the Insider Letter), it will indemnify and hold harmless the Issuer against any and all loss, liability, claims, damage and expense whatsoever which the Issuer may become subject as a result of any claim by any vendor or other person who is owed money by the Issuer for services rendered or products sold to or contracted for the Issuer, or by any target business with which the Issuer has discussed entering into a transaction agreement, but only to the extent necessary to ensure that such loss, liability, claim, damage or expense does not reduce the amount of funds in the Trust Account; provided that such indemnity shall not apply if such vendor or prospective target business executes an agreement waiving any claims against the Trust Account.

Pursuant to the Insider Letter, the Reporting Persons agreed not to sell, assign, transfer or dispose of the Founder Shares until one year after the completion of the Issuer’s initial business. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (1) if the last sale price of Common Stock equals or exceeds $12.00 per share (as adjusted for stock splits, stock dividends, reorganizations, recapitalizations and the like) for any 20 trading days within any 30-trading day period commencing at least 150 days after the Issuer’s initial business combination, or (2) if the Issuer consummates a transaction after such initial business combination which results in the Issuer’s stockholders having the right to exchange their shares for cash, securities or other property, the Founder Shares will be released from such lock-up. The Reporting Persons also agreed that the Private Placement Units and their component securities will not be transferable, assignable or salable until 30 days after the completion of the Issuer’s initial business combination. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Insider Letter provided exceptions pursuant to which the Reporting Persons could transfer such shares to certain permitted transferees as further described in the Insider Letter.
